- Sense of responsibility.
- Professional consulting and superior transport solutions.

GREATER SOLUTIONS?

Do you have an overweight or oversize shipment?
No problem for us.

Every single day we are engaged in providing optimum solutions for the tasks assigned by our customers. In shipment of overweight or oversize loads, we offer to our customers tediously designed complete solutions accurate in every detail - whether an optimized route planning or calculation, or transport task.

This is not all. We make appropriate special vehicles available for your products as well.

In addition to above Trans Otto offers much more. Naturally, we are also concerned with a preliminary planning of necessary permissions and procurements throughout your transportation needs:

- National and international route planning.
- Obtaining special permissions both inland and abroad, taking local regulations in relevant countries into consideration and full compliance.
- Organization of traffic guidance actions (road blocks, demounting of traffic lights and signs).
- Handling customs clearance formalities.
